Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(expressed in Canadian dollars)

Prepared Without Audit

For the six months ended August 31, 2006

Note 1 Nature and Continuance of Operations

The Company is a development stage public company listed on the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSX”) and is in the business of acquiring, exploring and evaluating mineral properties, and either developing these properties further or disposing of them when the evaluation is completed. As at August 31, 2006, the Company held mineral property interests located in Thailand.

The recoverability of amounts shown for mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, confirmation of the Company’s interest in the underlying mineral claims, the ability of the Company to obtain financing to complete their development, and future profitable production or disposition thereof.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. As at August 31, 2006, the Company had not achieved profitable operations and has accumulated losses totalling $7,645,454 since inception. Its ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the ability of the Company to generate future profitable operations and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted with any certainty at this time and raise substantial doubt that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments to the amounts and classification of assets and liabilities that may be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as established in Canada and are stated in Canadian dollars. Because a precise determination of many assets and liabilities is dependent upon future events, the preparation of financial statements for a period necessarily involved the use of estimates by management that have been made using careful judgment. Actual results may vary from these estimates.

The consolidated financial statements have, in the opinion of management, been properly prepared within reasonable limits of materiality and within the framework of the significant accounting policies summarized below:

a) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary companies as shown below:

Amanta Minerals Co. Ltd. (“Minerals”)	100%
Adnet, USA LLC	100% (inactive)

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies – (cont'd)

Amanta Minerals Co. Ltd. (“Minerals”) was incorporated on June 3, 2005 under the laws of Thailand to pursue the Company’s Thai mineral, exploration and development activities. Notwithstanding the Company’s direct shareholdings being limited under Thai law to a minority position of 49%, the remaining shareholdings are beneficially owned by the Company through appointed nominees resident in Thailand, and accordingly management considers Minerals to be a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

All inter-company transactions and balances are eliminated on consolidation.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to cash and had maturities of three months or less when purchased.

c) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided over the estimated useful lives of the assets using the following methods and annual rates:

Computer equipment	30%	diminishing balance
Office equipment	20%	diminishing balance
Leasehold improvements	straight line basis over the initial lease term of three years

d) Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing loss for the year by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share reflect the potential dilution that could occur if potentially dilutive securities are exercised or converted to common stock. The dilutive effect of options and warrants and their equivalent is computed by application of the treasury stock method and the effect of convertible securities by the “if converted” method. Fully diluted amounts are not presented when the effect of the computations are antidilutive due to the losses incurred. Accordingly, there is no difference in the amounts presented for basic and diluted loss per share.

e) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company considers its subsidiaries to be operationally integrated with the parent company and, therefore uses the temporal method to translate the accounts of its subsidiaries. Under this method, monetary items are translated at the rate of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date. Non-monetary items are translated at average rates in effect during the period in which they were earned or incurred. Gains and losses resulting from the fluctuation of foreign exchange rates have been included in the determination of income.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies – (cont'd)

f) Financial Instruments

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, miscellaneous receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and due to related parties approximates fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

g) Income Taxes

The Company has adopted the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, current income taxes are recognized for the estimated income taxes payable for the current period. Future income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for temporary differences between the tax and accounting basis of assets and liabilities as well as for the benefit of losses available to be carried forward to future years for tax purposes only if it is more likely-than-not that they can be realized.

h) Mineral Properties

The Company defers the cost of acquiring, maintaining its interest, exploring and developing mineral properties until such time as the properties are placed into production, abandoned, sold or considered to be impaired in value. Costs of producing properties will be amortized on a unit of production basis and costs of abandoned properties are written-off. Proceeds received on the sale of interests in mineral properties are credited to the carrying value of the mineral properties, with any excess included in operations. Write-downs due to impairment in value are charged to operations.

The Company is in the process of exploring and developing its mineral properties and has not yet determined the amount of reserves available. Management reviews the carrying value of mineral properties on a periodic basis and will recognize impairment in value based upon current exploration results, the prospect of further work being carried out by the Company, the assessment of future probability of profitable revenues from the property or from the sale of the property. Amounts shown for properties represent costs incurred net of write-downs and recoveries, and are not intended to represent present or future values.

Note 2 Significant Accounting Policies – (cont'd)

i) Environmental Costs

Environmental expenditures that relate to current operations are expensed or capitalized as appropriate. Expenditures that relate to an existing condition caused by past operations and which do not contribute to current or future revenue generation are expensed. Liabilities are recorded when environmental assessments and/or remedial efforts are probable and the costs can be reasonably estimated. Generally, the timing of these accruals coincides with the earlier of completion of a feasibility study or the Company's commitment to a plan of action based on the then known facts.

j) Stock-based Compensation

Canadian generally accepted accounting principles require the fair value of all share purchase options to be expensed over their vesting period with a corresponding increase to contributed surplus. Upon exercise of share purchase options, the consideration paid by the option holder, together with the amount previously recognized in contributed surplus, is recorded as an increase to share capital.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model to calculate the fair value of share purchase options at the date of grant. Option pricing models require the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected price volatility. Changes in these assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and, therefore, the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company's share purchase options.
